Player’s and parents’ (“Member Families”) behavior reflects on the Association and affects children’s performance. Further, Member Families should understand that under the rules of the game, coaches can be ejected from our games should Member Families behave improperly.

Member Families should understand that unacceptable behavior by a Player’s parent or other family member or friend may be addressed by a referee or Club official asking the offending person to leave the game, the facility or removing the player from the game. Member Families, through their registration and membership in Northern Utah United, must comply when asked to refrain from further yelling at a game or if asked to leave a game or facility by a match official or Association official.

It is the policy of the organization that the Member Families must further acknowledge that if Player, Player’s parent or other family member verbally or physically abuses, taunts, inappropriately gestures, throws an object, makes an inappropriate sign or otherwise harasses, intimidates or improperly touches or engages any fan, player, match official, coach or representative, or opposing coach or club representative - that conduct, at the sole discretion of the Association, is grounds for restricting parents’ and other family members’:

- A. Observation of Player during games and practices and
- B. Participation with Player at Association and Team Activities while Player participates within our Association.
- C. NUU may further refer inappropriate conduct to applicable league, tournament, UYSA disciplinary committees and/or law enforcement officials, and may place the player/player’s family in Bad Standing (see section 8:01:10(3) for more information on Bad Standing.
- D. NUU may require any parent or family member spectator that is found to engage in poor sportsmanship or harassment of referees or other officials, to take our NUU Sideline tutorial before being allowed to return to the sideline, under threat of their player being placed on suspension if the family member does not comply.

2:08:07 Non Participation because of ‘Bad Standing’ - Any Member, Team, Club, or Individual Member Association of UYSA determined to be in ‘bad standing’ by either UYSA or Northern Utah United Soccer will not be allowed to participate in any Northern Utah United Soccer or UYSA activities. To this end, recreation/developmental soccer must be absolutely free from player tryouts or selections, maintenance of records of scores and team standings, recognition or awards for champions, and pressure from coaches or parents to win. Players should be taught basic skills and strategies and encouraged to do their best on the field. They have a right to expect praise and positive reinforcement for their efforts whether their team wins, ties, or loses.

5:01:01 Minimum Play time - Recreational players shall be guaranteed a minimum play time of one half (½) of each game, with a recommendation that every effort should be made to allow equal play time for all players. Players should have the opportunity to learn and have playing time in every position, regardless of skill, experience, or ability.

5:01:02 Team Organization – No tryouts are to be held for recreation/developmental program. Every attempt should be made to form neighborhood teams with a balance of age and playing experience. Recreation/developmental teams should not be perpetuated year after year, or season after season, where an obvious imbalance exists, i.e., a team wins all its games

5:01:03 Recreational Coaches and Team Parents - Volunteer parents or other responsible individuals shall be selected and/or recruited to serve as coaches, assistant coaches, and team parents for each team. The coach and assistant

- 5:01:04 Coaches meeting/training - should be held prior to the start of the seasonal year. Pertinent program rules and procedures should be reviewed. When weather conditions dictate, recreational/developmental players may wear warm-ups or other clothing under their uniforms. Home team shall wear the navy or darker color, and Away team shall wear white

See Sections 2:08:06 & 6:16 for more information about our player and sideline policy.
- 5:02
5:02:01 Academy Soccer
- Academy Soccer Purpose and Definition - The Purpose of the Academy program is to give additional soccer training to younger players that aspire to play competition soccer. The Academy program focuses on building core skills, ball handling, and good sportsmanship. Academy soccer fills the niche between our Competition programs and our Recreational programs - allowing for more technical training and skill, without the added pressure to win and perform that is inherent in the competition programs.
- 5:02:02 Academy sessions may run year-round. These sessions consist of one weekly session for players in the age ranges U5 – U8, ideally on Monday or Friday so as to allow players to participate in both Recreational Soccer and Academy soccer, if they so choose.
